Reflection for the 3rd week of Lent

Bible reading John 18:28-19:2

The thorns press harder. Blood pumps from the punctured skin, oozes, clots in the heat and the sweat, and flows again. He is faint. His hands are shaking. He slips and falls again. Out of reach. Utterly alone. The Godhead which is fully alive in Jesus, the crucified, is poured into the lap of uncomprehending humanity. These are the truths the thorns reveal. All our deaths and all our sorrows and all our failures are nailed to this tree. This is our half of the cross. We die with him because he chose to die for us.

Reflect

How does it feel to be ridiculed and taunted?

What do we mean when we say Jesus is King?

Prayer for 3rd week of Lent

Heavenly Father,

We come before you in the name of Jesus, reflecting on the scene of His trial before Pilate.

We praise you for your absolute sovereignty, knowing that even in the darkest hours, you are in control of all things, accomplishing Your divine plan.

Amen
