Prayer for the week

Loving God, thank you for your call to discipleship and service and to sharing in the work of your kingdom.

Thank you for calling me as I am, with all my faults, weaknesses and doubts, accepting me not through my own deserving, but through your grace.

Above all thank you for working deep within to change my life and draw me ever closer to you.

Amen

As a Parish let us include in our prayers:

Sunday Our Church Wardens, PCC and those who serve on committees in our parish to work together in the running of our Parish.

Monday All graduates still seeking the elusive job that they find guidance to help them continue their searching.

Tuesday All sleeping on the streets that they find help to locate accommodation.

Wednesday Those living Alfred Brereton Drive and Barons Road.

Thursday All who are long term carers at home and those they care for.

Friday All who are struggling with their mental health and those caring for them.

Saturday Grandparents caring for grandchildren that they will find the patience and energy needed each day.
