Prayer for the week

Forgive me, Lord,
for I am part of an unjust and unequal world,
a world in which I have plenty at the cost of others.
Help me to do what I can to redress the balance,
not by just giving to charity,
but through using my money wisely
so that it contributes towards change.
Though economic issues are complex,
save me from hiding behind them;
from foolishly believing
I can both have my cake and eat it, serving self as well as you.
Amen

As a Parish let us include in our prayers:

Sunday All who are training for ministry in our Diocese.

Monday Children who are abused and their families

Tuesday SAS members and the committee who lead it.

Thursday Shavington St. Luke's support group and their fundraising activities.

OUR CAFÉS

The phenomenal success of our Café's at All Saints and St Mark's is putting ever more pressure on our small teams of Helpers, Bakers & Quiche makers – and unfortunately we have had to close occasionally when volunteers are away.

A few more volunteers would be a huge help!

Could you offer a little time occasionally? It can be very flexible to suit you if you don't feel you can offer a whole day:

- An hour or so from around 8.20am to help with setting up and preparing food for the day
- Couple of hours during lunchtime service when we're at our busiest
- An hour or two in early afternoon to help with clearing up and putting everything away
- Baking cakes, Quiches (Soup in winter months) and other goodies at your own home (we pay for all ingredients)

• ANY AGE welcome from 10 upwards – (could even count towards Duke of Edinburgh or Scout / Guide awards for youngsters)

Have a chat with Sue Moore 01270 587566 for more info – or drop into the café and talk to any of our volunteers

Final call for donations of cakes and tombola and raffle prizes for the

Weston Garden Party Saturday July 4th

Also for additional stallholders and volunteers both on the day and also to assist with set-up before the event and tidying up after it.

Please contact john@densem.co.uk for more information.

Shavington Village Festival

A big thank you to everyone who helped at or contributed to the St Mark's card tombola stall at the village festival, raising £ 160 was for St Mark's New Church Fund.

Joint Outdoor Service

It was great to see this well attended by members of both churches, even though we had to go indoors because of the cold weather. Thanks to Rev'd Jo and the team from Shavington Methodist church for making us so welcome.

The collection raised £ 157.50 for Water Aid.

GARDENING & TIDYING AT ALL SAINTS'

Very many thanks to Mike & Linda for some sterling work clearing weeds and overgrown borders at All Saints' Hall – with the added benefit that our window cleaner is now able to get to the windows!

Could you spare a small amount of time to join a small team helping to keep our grass and borders tidy around the church and church hall?

Contact Robert, Sue or Allison for more info about what might be needed – or drop a note to allsaintsstmarks@btinternet.com
