Prayer for the week

Sovereign God,
you do not want me to judge,
but you do want me to stand up for what is right and oppose what is evil.
Help me to recognise when those times are,
and then to be true to my convictions
and true to you.
Amen

Thank you

On behalf of the FOALS group I would like to express our thanks for all the help in organising, setting up and running the Garden Party on the 4th July. This would not have been possible without the help and contributions from everyone. It was a great day and evening enjoyed by all who attended.

The funds raised will be used for the continued repair and maintenance of All Saints Church.

OUR CAFÉS

The phenomenal success of our Café's at All Saints and St Mark's is putting ever more pressure on our small teams of Helpers, Bakers & Quiche makers – and unfortunately, we have had to close occasionally when volunteers are away.

A few more volunteers would be a huge help!

Could you offer a little time occasionally? It can be very flexible to suit you if you don't feel you can offer a whole day:

- An hour or so from around 8.20am to help with setting up and preparing food for the day
- Couple of hours during lunchtime service when we're at our busiest
- An hour or two in early afternoon to help with clearing up and putting everything away
- Baking cakes, Quiches (Soup in winter months) and other goodies at your own home (we pay for all ingredients)

ANY AGE welcome from 10 upwards – (could even count towards Duke of Edinburgh or Scout / Guide awards for youngsters)

Have a chat with Sue Moore 01270 587566 for more info – or drop into the café and talk to any of our volunteers

GARDENING & TIDYING AT ALL SAINTS'

Very many thanks to Mike & Linda for some sterling work clearing weeds and overgrown borders at All Saints' Hall – with the added benefit that our window cleaner is now able to get to the windows!

Could you spare a small amount of time to join a small team helping to keep our grass and borders tidy around the church and church hall?
Contact Robert, Sue or Allison for more info about what might be needed – or drop a note to
