Prayer for the week

Gracious God,
forgive me that all too often
I leave your word sitting on a shelf, unopened,
Help me to recognise the priceless treasure
you have given me in the scriptures,
and in the clamour of each day to make time
to read them reverently and thoughtfully,
so that your voice may speak again,
offering light to my path
and the way to life in all its fullness.
Amen

As a Parish let us include in our prayers:

Sunday For those in Chester Diocese who are being ordained today.

Monday Children who suffer abuse and those who care for them.

Tuesday Residents in Edwards Avenue and Hampstead Drive,

Wednesday Those who are resident in care homes and those who care for them.

Thursday Emergency service workers that they will be safe as they carry out their duties day and night.

OUR CAFÉS

The phenomenal success of our Café's at All Saints and St Mark's is putting ever more pressure on our small teams of Helpers, Bakers & Quiche makers – and unfortunately, we have had to close occasionally when volunteers are away.

A few more volunteers would be a huge help!

Could you offer a little time occasionally? It can be very flexible to suit you if you don't feel you can offer a whole day:

- An hour or so from around 8.20am to help with setting up and preparing food for the day
- Couple of hours during lunchtime service when we're at our busiest
- An hour or two in early afternoon to help with clearing up and putting everything away
- Baking cakes, Quiches (Soup in winter months) and other goodies at your own home (we pay for all ingredients)

• ANY AGE welcome from 10 upwards – (could even count towards Duke of Edinburgh or Scout / Guide awards for youngsters)

Have a chat with Sue Moore 01270 587566 for more info – or drop into the café and talk to any of our volunteers

GARDENING & TIDYING AT ALL SAINTS'

Very many thanks to Mike & Linda for some sterling work clearing weeds and overgrown borders at All Saints' Hall – with the added benefit that our window cleaner is now able to get to the windows!

Could you spare a small amount of time to join a small team helping to keep our grass and borders tidy around the church and church hall?

Contact Robert, Sue or Allison for more info about what might be needed – or drop a note to
